Dear Madam/Sir,

I am writing this letter to appreciate for the incredible work you have done, for your serious assistance to me during the pandemic in August by inviting my wife and facilitating all procedures for her entry to Wenchang City in cooperation with the esteemed Wenchang government...

Thanks are due also to the International Exchange Office for the assistance they provided me from the beginning of receiving my wife until the completion of my wedding here in Wenchang.....and on behalf of all the foreign teachers, I thank you once again for your effort and cooperation to raise the status of the College and serve its students.

Sincerely,

Dear, Sir,

I am pleased to write this letter to thank Mr. Chen Jianqi and his team at the International Exchange Office at the college. He is really a big brother not only a manager. This is one of the characteristics and advantages of the great Chinese people, as he made all efforts to help me to facilitate the procedures to invite my wife to China during the difficult period that is going through in the country due to the spread of the epidemic and his complete success, he and his team in completing this process and also helping me in my wedding ceremony in Wenchang city, and this is not new to him in his dedication to work and his constant assistance to all foreign teachers, he deserves to be a successful manager.

Again, Thank you so much for helping me during these difficult times. Your help has been invaluable; I don't know how I would have managed without your help and support. I sincerely appreciate your generosity.

Best regards,,
